Re: Swanson, Tracy LynnJuly 28, 2005*Page 2*U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The defendant is scheduled to begin a 120-day halfway house placement at Franklin County Work Release on September 1, 2005. The probation officer is requesting the Court take judicial notice of the new law violation and allow the offender an opportunity to participate in the Franklin County Work Release Program. The defendant's conditions of release were previously modified by the Court on June 15, 2005, adding the halfway house condition.

As the offender continues to be basically indigent and could benefit from this placement, the probation officer recommends adopting a "wait and see" posture to determine if the offender's condition and behavior will improve. If the offender fails to take advantage of this program or continues to engage in violation behavior, the probation officer will recommend the offender be returned before the Court for revocation.
